Department of Physics invites applications from pre-doctoral students pursuing doctoral dissertation research projects in particle physics, astrophysics, condensed-matter physics, and biophysics. Applicants must have completed course work and have a master's degree in the relevant fields by the time of enrollment.

An applicant is required to contact a faculty member who will be the dissertation advisor.
The purpose of the initial contact is to find the best advisor for study at Nagoya University.

Laboratories and potential advisors in Department of Physics are listed in the link below:

Guidelines for Admission to Doctoral Program in Department of Physics Graduate School of Science, Nagoya University

Admission Policy

The program welcomes individuals who have a high level of academic ability in the natural sciences and are able to apply this ability to novel situations; those who challenge themselves to explore and unravel the laws of nature while building up a sense of interdisciplinarity and internationalization; and those who are able to pioneer new research areas in the natural sciences.

1. Eligibility for Application

Applicants are supposed not to have Japanese nationality (and not to have permanent residence in Japan), and must satisfy either of the following two:

- (1) The applicant has received a master's degree, or is expected to receive before March 31, 2023.
- (2) The applicant is deemed to possess academic ability equivalent or superior to that of a graduate with a master's degree.

2. Number of Available Places

Department	Number of Available Places
Department of Physics, Graduate School of Science, Nagoya University	Limited

Applicants must contact their prospective advisor before submitting the application.

3. Registering through Web Application System and Payment of Examination Fee

Register your application and pay the examination fee at the Web Application System (URL <https://e-apply.jp/ds/nagoya-gs/>).

For details, see the attached “Web Application Flow”.

4. Application Documents

- (1) Resume (designated form)
- (2) Academic transcript (for master's course)
- (3) Certificate of completion (expected) (for master's program)
- (4) Abstract of master's thesis (designated form)

If you have not written a master's thesis, describe your research plan after admission.

5. Application Procedure

Applicants must submit all the documents (1) - (4), in WORD or PDF, listed above to the Graduate School of Science by e-mail (ri-ryu@adm.nagoya-u.ac.jp).

Applicant's name should be written in the subject line.

Application Deadline: November 11 3:00 pm, 2022. (Japan time)

Notes:

(1) Applicants will be notified of the examinee's numbers by e-mail after the application documents are received. If you do not receive the e-mail by November 18, contact the Graduate School of Science (ri-ryu@adm.nagoya-u.ac.jp).

(2) Applicants with disabilities who require special consideration in taking the entrance examination must submit a written request to Student Affairs Section, Graduate School of Science by November 11, 2022, with the following three items.

(a) Application form for special considerations for entrance exams (including information on the applicant's disability, items for which you wish to receive special consideration in taking the exam and the reasons for such requests, etc.).

(b) A doctor's certificate or disability certificate (a copy is acceptable) that describes the applicant's disability.

(c) A letter of support from a third party who knows the applicant's disability.

Other documents can be included.

If you have a request for entrance examinations or post-entrance study, please contact the student affairs section, Graduate School of Science by the application deadline.

6. Selection Method (Entrance Examination)

Entrance Examination will be conducted within two weeks after the Application Deadline. Selection of a successful applicant consists of a document screening and an interview (through internet-interview, etc.).

7. Announcement of Results

The result will be announced on December 12, 2022, on a board in front of the Office of Student Affairs Section, Building C Room 101.

The results will also be announced at the website of Graduate School of Science (<https://www.sci.nagoya-u.ac.jp>) on December 13, 2022.

Successful applicants will be notified by documents in early January, 2023.

After the acceptance, successful applicants will be required to submit original copy of degree diploma and academic transcript.
