

Timetable for Spring Semester Course Registration (2026)

The periods for online registration 2026 Spring semester (for all International programs students) are tabulated below.

Note that students will be able to access the online systems during these application periods only.

Students are encouraged to register as early as possible in order to avoid problems in accessing the system. Slow or intermittent network traffic are expected to occur near the end of the registration period due to an increasing network volume for access. Furthermore, the online systems will become non-responsive beyond their open registration periods. Please make sure that you complete all of required procedures within the times specified.

If you lost “Course List and Graduation Requirements for International Programs”, please contact to the office of Student Affairs Section in School of Science.

* You can register for courses by accessing the Learning Management System from the Nagoya University Portal. (<https://portal.nagoya-u.ac.jp/>)

* To login, use your THERS account and password. You can also access the Portal from off campus sites.

* You can check the syllabus for the specialized courses in the School of Science on the Learning Management System. Please be sure to check the syllabus on the Learning Management System before registering for courses.
